

Assurance statement

Data included within this report has generally been made publicly available through a range of sources such as the SRA or our own publications and as such will often have been subject to external review. The greenhouse gas and waste data have been provided by consultancies which have undertaken independent assessment. Details of these assessments are available on the National Express Group website – www.nationalexpressgroup.com.