

SUPPORTING LOCAL SUCCESS STORY...

Long-term financial support from TWM has helped Birmingham-based regional publisher, Tindal Street Press, publish the works of local authors, including Clare Morrall who was shortlisted for the Man Booker Prize 2003. TWM has donated £15,000 over the last three years to help Tindal Street Press assist West Midlands based authors. During the Man Booker Prize shortlisting, additional funds were provided to the publisher in order that it could meet the significant demand for copies of the book which arose from the shortlist promotion.
